

Overview

The strategy of the BitFund Balanced 10 is to track the top 10 largest cryptocurrencies¹, by market capitalisation, as closely as possible. This strategy holds each constituent of the top 10 largest cryptocurrencies¹ with weightings proportional to each respective cryptocurrency's market capitalisation. These weightings and constituents are rebalanced on a weekly basis.

3.3 All risks associated with the clients investments in cryptocurrencies is the risk of the client who acknowledges that Bitfund makes no representations or warranties and provides no advice in respect of the Cryptocurrency investments.

3.4 The client acknowledges that the volatility of the cryptocurrency price may result in the price being different from the time of selecting "invest" on the BitFund platform to the time that BitFund executes the trade. As such, the client warrants that it will not hold BitFund liable for the difference in price, caused as a result of, or in relation to, a delay of transacting on various cryptocurrency exchanges or through other institutions such as banks.

3.5 BitFund does not purport to provide any indication on the future price of cryptocurrencies, or the performance of any bundle of cryptocurrencies. As such, client's should ensure they understand the nature of cryptocurrencies and what they are investing in, prior to making a decision to invest in a portfolio of cryptocurrencies.

Fact Sheets

4.1 Fact sheets indicate hypothetical and theoretical scenarios, backtested, based on data from the BitFund platform. BitFund calculates its fact sheets by retroactively applying a financial model or index-weighting methodology to the historical pricing data to obtain the relevant rates of returns or losses. The hypothetical returns may include fees that are charged by BitFund, but actual returns or losses may differ materially from hypothetical, back-tested scenarios proposed in the fact sheets.

4.2 As such, BitFund does not provide any assurances that the relevant displayed data accurately tracks its intended assets or achieves its investment objectives, as relevant fees may cause differences in each client's data.

Indemnity

5.1 BitFund shall not be liable for any claims, losses, costs, damages or expenses which the client may suffer arising from, or in connection with, the use of the BitFund platform or the processing of personal information. BitFund shall not be liable for any delay, failure, breakdown, damage, loss, costs, claim, penalty, fine or expense arising from the BitFund platform (including the non-availability or incorrect functioning of any designated systems).

5.2 The client hereby indemnifies and holds BitFund and its directors, employees, agents, and representatives, harmless against all claims, liabilities, losses, damages or expenses of whatsoever nature it may suffer (whether directly or indirectly) resulting from, arising out of, or relating to the buying, selling, rebalancing, storage or use of the BitFund platform.

General

6.1 BitFund reserves the rights to change these terms and conditions from time to time.

6.2 The client acknowledges and agrees that BitFund may process its personal information, where required.

6.3 Any terms and conditions not expressly dealt with herein shall be governed by the terms and conditions set out on the BitFund website, available at www.bitfund.co.za.
